EULOGY OF THE LATE ELIZABETH NJOKI MUGWE

BIRTH

Elizabeth Njoki Mugwe was born in 1926 at Gitui village, Murang'a County to her parents the late Macharia Mucheru and the late Gathoni Kanjira. She was the first born child among her siblings sister Beatrice Mugure Muraguri of Karatina, Nyeri and Co-wife to the late Monica Muthoni Gerison of Gitui village.

EARLY LIFE AND EDUCATION

Elizabeth was brought up like any other girl child of her time. Elizabeth started her education at Gatheru Intermediate school in 1941 where she excelled in early learning up to grade 2 and she didn't finish her studies due to demand for her to get married from the parents; instead she followed her consciousness and joined the church missionary of Anglican Church led by the late Mwalimu Samson

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY

Elizabeth Njoki met the love of her life the late Williamson Mugwe Kangara and was married under Kikuyu customary law and their marriage was later solemnized in the church.

They were blessed with children namely; Mwathi Mugwe of Eastleigh, Jennifer Mbatia of Umoja, the late Nelius, Grace of Eastleigh, Pastor Idah Mwangi of Ruiru, Macharia Mugwe - Executive Secretary-KNUT, Nairobi Branch. Njeri Kamau of Kiambu High, Pastor Beatrice - Deliverance Church, Loise of Mombasa and Emily of Kiserean.

She was also a cherished mother-in-law to Ann Mwathi, Ephantus Mbatia, the late John Mwangi, Ann Njeri Macharia, Peter Kamau, Pastor Lazarus Gitonga and James Irungu Kinuthia. Elizabeth Njoki was a loving aunt to Murage, the late Macharia, Muthoni, Mwaniki, Nduta, Mwangi, Wangeci, Maina and Machaga from Karatina, Nyeri.

WORK

Elizabeth was a dedicated small-scale farmer, cultivating a variety of crops on her farm, including coffee (which held a special place in her heart), as well as bananas, oranges, beans and maize. She would regularly take her produce to Mukuyu market, using the income generated to support her children's education.

CHURCH

Elizabeth was baptized at ACK St. John Kahuhia in 1942. Thereafter she was confirmed in the same church in 1958 and they solemnized their wedding at ACK Igwe in 1981. She accepted Jesus Christ as her personal saviour and Lord and became a staunch believer. She was later appointed as a Sunday school teacher. In the year 1978, she was enrolled in the Mothers Union and was an active member of East African Revival Fellowship (Tukutendereza). She was one of the pioneering member of ACK Trinity Church Gatheru after they left Kahuhia and was even recognized during the Centenary celebration in 2023.

She taught us how to pray; we grew knowing that even salt is provided by God. Spiritual matters were of utmost importance to her, and she ensured her children attended Sunday school, instilling in them a strong faith foundation. Discipline was strict, reflecting the values of the time. As a devoted member of the Mothers Union at Jerusalem Neighborhood Fellowship, she actively participated in various activities, including fellowships, fundraising events and visiting the sick.

Despite her illness and inability to attend church services, her devotion remained unwavering. She continued to send her offerings every Sunday and contribute to various church initiatives, inspiring many with her faithfulness. Even when she relocated to Nairobi for treatment, the Vicar and congregation from Gatheru Trinity Church demonstrated their love and care by visiting her, sharing Holy Communion and providing spiritual support. Similarly, the ACK St. Julian The Hospitable Church in Kariobangi South visited her, prayed with her, and partook in Holy Communion together before her passing. Her faith was unshakeable, and her motto, 'Halleluyah,' reflected her deep joy and connection with God. Her infectious laughter and enthusiastic declaration of 'Halleluyah' lifted the spirits of those around her, testifying to her profound love for God.

RELATIONSHIP WITH THE COMMUNITY

Elizabeth was renowned for her kindness, friendliness, and generosity, fostering strong relationships with her neighbours and the broader community. To her children, she was a loving yet firm mother, offering guidance and discipline when needed. To her grandchildren, she was a warm and welcoming presence. She often reminded her children, "Nii ndimurereire kanitha-ini" ("I have brought you up in the church"), emphasizing the importance of faith in their lives.

LEGACY

Her legacy includes uniting the extended family and her children, prudently managing the wealth left by her husband, and instilling a strong belief in the transformative power of education. She leaves behind a lasting legacy of integrity, intercession within the family, and a commitment to punctuality in church services.

ILLNESS AND DEMISE

Until 2020, Elizabeth enjoyed relatively good health. However, during the COVID-19 pandemic, she fell ill and was rushed to Heritage Hospital in Murang'a where she was admitted for urgent care. Due to the complexity of her condition, she was later transferred to Mater Hospital in Nairobi for advanced treatment, where she received outpatient care for nearly a year.

This year in April, Elizabeth's health took a turn, and she was hospitalized at Nairobi West Hospital's High Dependency Unit (HDU) due to complications related to eating difficulties. During her stay, she underwent dialysis and made medical history by setting a remarkable record at the hospital as the oldest patient to undergo dialysis without developing any adverse effects.

After her discharge, Elizabeth spent her remaining days surrounded by her loving children receiving home care assisted by Dr. Stephen Owino. Her life came to a peaceful end on 13th September 2025 at the age of 99 years.

Most importantly, she leaves behind nine(9) children, twenty three(23) grandchildren and eleven(11) great grand children a family that embodies her enduring values of kindness, hard work and courage. Her memory will forever be cherished in our hearts.

May her soul rest in eternal peace."

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on. Yes, says the Spirit, they'll rest in their labours, for their deeds follow them."

Revelation 13:14.

Tribute from the Daughters

“Dear Mom,
Your strength was our foundation, your love our guiding light. You worked tirelessly, prayed fervently, and held our family together with unwavering resilience and discipline. Your legacy is one of faith, perseverance, and unconditional love.

As a matriarch, you were the glue that kept us united, and your wisdom guided us through life's challenges. We celebrate your life, honor your sacrifices, and will carry your love and teachings forward. Rest in peace, dear Mom.

Your impact will forever be felt.

We reminisce with gratitude the wonderful words you always used in your day-to-day life: "Ritwa ria Mwathani rirogocwo" (May the name of the Lord be praised.)

Your daily prayers would begin with "Ndakira ki mbere ya Ngai" - "I am silent before God," words that will forever be ingrained in our hearts. Your joyful "Hallelujah!" as you lifted your hands in praise will never be forgotten. Mom, you loved to bless, and each time we called you, you'd end our conversations with "Aramirio mihaka ta Jabez" - "May God enlarge your territories like Jabez's." This blessing has been a reality in our lives, as God has continually enlarged each one of us. Wow, Mom, our pillar, our blesser, our intercessor - we will always love you.”

A Tribute to my Sister Njoki

With deepest love and gratitude,
I honour you my one and only sister.
Together we built a life filled with harmony and love.
Through every joy and hardship,
We stood together as one family.

I won't forget the memories we shared especially the love,
as you watched me grow in the village,
you were a mentor and wise counsel.

You instilled me, your children and everyone you met ,
in values of faith teaching us to work humbly with God,
Although you may be gone from this world,
your legacy lives on in me and the entire family.
I will forever miss and cherish you until we meet again.
Huruka uhoro mwari wa Kanjira.

A Tribute from Grand Children

Today we celebrate the beautiful life of our Shosho, a woman whose faith and love touched us all. Shosho lived her life as a true example of grace, kindness, and devotion to God. She showed us that love, forgiveness, and prayer can carry us through life's storms. Her home was always filled with warmth, not just from the meals she prepared, but from the love she poured into everyone who walked through her door. She prayed for us daily, guided us gently, and reminded us that our greatest strength comes from faith.

Though we are heartbroken to say goodbye, we take comfort knowing that Shosho has gone to be with the Lord she loved so dearly. She has run her race, kept her faith, and now rests in eternal peace.

Shosho, your light will continue to shine in us, and your prayers will live on through generations. Until we meet again, may you rest in God's everlasting embrace.

A Tribute from Great Grand Children

Maitu,

Today we gather with hearts that feel both heavy and grateful. Heavy because we miss you, and grateful because we were blessed to know you.
You were more than our Maitu; you were a light in our lives.

Every smile, every story, every hug from you was a reminder of how deeply we were loved. You carried so much wisdom, and even in your quiet moments, we could feel your love and your prayers guiding us.

We will always remember the way your face lit up when you saw us, the way your hands blessed us with gentle touches, and the way you taught us, without many words, what kindness truly means.

Though we are sad to say goodbye, we know this is not the end. We believe you are with God now, smiling down on us from heaven. We can almost hear you whisper, "Be good, love one another, and stay close to God." Shosh, we promise to carry your love in our hearts, to live with kindness, and to grow into the kind of people who will make you proud. Your prayers will live on in us, and your light will never go out.

We love you forever and will miss you always.

Until we meet again, rest peacefully in the arms of the Lord

A Tribute from Daughter-in-law

Today, I mourn and celebrate you, dear mother-in-law, for the years we've had the privilege of living with you. You were more than just a mother-in-law to me; you were a cherished friend and confidante. Your spirit of generosity and compassion will forever be a beacon for our family. As a wonderful, godly woman, you upheld the entire family in prayer daily, and your love knew no bounds.

You loved me unconditionally, like your own daughter, and I felt the warmth of a mother's love. I feel truly blessed to have had you in my life. Your guidance taught me the importance of prayers, self-love, taking care of my appearance (Keeping myself clean and smart at all times) and nourishing my body with wholesome food.

Thank you for the countless ways you showed me love, the cherished memories we shared together. Though you may be gone, you leave behind a legacy of kindness, great faith, and love. Farewell, dear Mum. You will forever hold a place in my heart, and I will miss you dearly. Until we meet again, may your soul rest in eternal peace. Amen."

Appreciation

“We, the Mugwe’s family, would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who has shown their support during this difficult time.
Your kindness and sympathy mean a great deal to us as we mourn the loss of our beloved Mother.
We are deeply grateful for your presence and support,
and we appreciate you more than words can express.”
